MOTION BY SUPERVISOR SHEILA KUEHL

September 8, 2015

On Thursday, September 3, 2015, I hosted a Roundtable Dialogue on Integrated Regional Drought Preparedness and Response at the Hall of Administration. The purpose of the roundtable dialogue was to share information and have a discussion about what State and Integrated Regional Water Management partners are doing and can do in response to the drought.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors waive the parking fees for up to 40 vehicles at the Music Center Garage, estimated to be up to $700.00, excluding the cost of liability insurance, for water agency representatives that attended the Roundtable Dialogue on Integrated Regional Drought Preparedness and Response, that was held on September 3, 2015 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
